Chuck Sandmann Wins Megawatt Community Service Award

Chuck Sandmann has been a member of the Barron Kiwanis Club since 1984 and served as President. He was instrumental in the Veteran's Memorial at the Wayside Cemetery in Barron. He helps plant, pick, haul and sell pumpkins, which is one of the club's largest fundraisers. Kiwanis donates money to organizations and youth activities, and also sponsors a key club. He is a member of the Barron American Legion Club, where he helps with the service and delivers the eulogy at Veteran's funerals. He is active in his church, First Baptist in Barron, where he assists with electrical and maintenance needs.
