Sandra Carlson Wins Megawatt Community Service Award

Meet Sandra Carlson, Barron Electric's Megawatt Community Service Award winner. Sandra volunteered for the Pioneer Village Museum in Cameron for four years. She helped with events, monitoring the buildings, and cleaning. She was then hired as a staff member and worked there for six years. She said, "I really learned a lot from the volunteers; they were a wealth of information. I also enjoyed seeing all of the people visiting the museum."

Sandra also volunteered at Growing Lights Christian Academy, where she drove for field trips, cooked lunch, and also taught students. She was an assistant leader for Cameron 4-H, where she wrote plays that were performed onstage.
