Bonnie Reno Wins Megawatt Community Service Award

Bonnie Reno is Barron Electric's Megawatt Community Service Award winner. She has helped with the Volunteers in Mission Program for the past five years, where the volunteers have traveled to Texas to help repair homes. Bonnie has helped with painting and laying block. She said, "The 29-hour bus trip is worth it. This is about the folks." The goal of the next trip in January is to build a house. Bonnie also helps cut up deer, a trait learned from her dad. She gives the meat to senior citizens. She is an avid supporter of the American Cancer Society. She is a member of the Grumpy Old Ladies, who hold a fishing fundraiser for cancer. Bonnie remarked, "I believe we are here to make a difference, and we are obligated to give back."
