Rick Rassbach Wins Megawatt Community Service Award

Rick Rassbach is Barron Electric's Megawatt Community Service Winner. Rick serves on the Board of Directors for the Boys & Girls Club where they help with fundraising efforts. He commented, "This program can help change the life of a child, as well as the community." He also serves on the Family Service Volunteer Board, where they review budgets. He serves on the Leadership Barron County Board, which plans informative programs for participants. He is President-Elect of the Barron Kiwanis Club, as well as past president. He also serves on the Executive Board at the Barron Area Community Center. Rick is the Vice President of WESTconsin Credit Union's Barron office. He remarked, "I enjoy helping to make the community a better place to live."

Win $50

Barron Electric is rewarding members and their families for community service by awarding a $50 electric bill credit to the winners of the Megawatt Community Service Award on a monthly basis. Nominate a member by completing the application form, available at barronelectric.com in the community area, or by contacting the Member Services Department at 800-322-1008.
